HAGEN MEETS BARNES

Grilling Struggle Exhausts
Both Contestants

Larry Nabholtz, the Shawnee Country club flash, lost his match with long Jim Barnes Friday at French Lick, but he won a place in the hall of golf fame that should make any golfer proud. Opposed by the man who has already won two legs of the championship cup and only needs a win this year to make it his permanent possession, the little star gave him the game of his life with the result in doubt until the last hole.

Nabholtz led through the entire game, at one time leading by 10 on the present open championship, his "championship nerve" stood him in good stead and the margin by which he lost was so narrow that it does not reflect in any way the difference in experience between the two men.

Barnes is a veteran of many campaigns. He is a cool-headed, consistent golfer who has been playing a wonderful game throughout the present tournament. Even with these advantages over the 36-hole club player, Barnes was a 2-3 handicap match, by the very slight margin of one hole.

World Airmen Leave Dallas

LOVE FIELD, DALLAS, Texas—(By Associated Press)—With Lieutenant Lowell H. Smith, flight commander, in the lead, piloting the Chicago, the army world fliers took off from Love Field, Dallas, at 9:40 a. m. for El Paso, 645 miles away.

The fliers arrived at Love Field yesterday at 4:24 p. m. central standard time, after a 225 mile hop from Muskogee, Okla., in three hours and fifty-four minutes. The slow speed was caused by strong head winds.

With the exception of Lieutenant Smith, who was indisposed and spent the night in his rooms, the aviators were honored at a banquet and theatre party by the chamber of commerce last night. Each was presented with an engraved bill-fold containing a $100 Liberty bond.

Thirteen Gallons of Liquor
Seized by Police

Two large stills and a quantity of liquor were seized late Friday night when the police vice-squad raided an empty building at 1109 E. Market-st.

W. L. Williams, 1097 E. Market-st., owner of the building, was arrested a few minutes after the raid and was taken to police headquarters, charged with possessing the still and liquor.

Williams, when arraigned in criminal court Saturday morning, pleaded guilty and was fined $350 and costs. He paid the fine and was released.

15-GALLON STILL
Evidence found in the building, police say, lead them to believe that liquor was being manufactured there in large quantities. Both stills were equipped to "run off" 15 gallons of the stuff at one time. One three-gallon and two five-gallon jugs containing liquor were taken with the stills to police headquarters.

Williams, who was formerly a prominent real estate agent, closed his office several months ago, and police are of the opinion

Charles Abbott, 25, Suicide.
Police Chief Believes

WAPAKONETA—(Special)—Body of Charles Abbott, 25, was fished from the Auglaize river at 7:15 a. m. Saturday by Charles Bryan and William Pence, two hunters, who saw the body lodged face downward in the middle of the river at the northeast corporation limits.

Condition of the body leads to belief that Abbott committed suicide last Monday shortly after he talked with Police Chief Ague, the last person to see him alive.

Abbott was found in three and one-half feet of water with his body bloated, indicating that death resulted several days ago. The body is in a morgue here awaiting a verdict by the county coroner, who is expected to return here Saturday.

Mrs. Charles Abbott, the widow, who is visiting in Detroit, was notified of her husband's death. Funeral arrangements are incomplete pending her arrival in Wapakoneta.

COMPETITION IS CLOSE

Judges Believe Choice Will Prove Very Popular

Princess Ohio has not yet been chosen.

Final conferences between Judge Phil M. Crow, of the court of appeals; Mrs. Walter Jackson, prominent Lima woman, and E. E. Bessire, general manager of the Radiant Oil Co., is being held as this is written.

Decision will be made early this afternoon and the formal announcement made in The Lima Sunday News. The winning beauty and the girl chosen to be her alternate will know the result Saturday afternoon, however, as The Lima News does not want to keep the entrants in suspense any longer than necessary.

CARE TAKEN
The reason for the delay is just this. The judges do not want to use snap judgment in the selection of the winner. They desire to make a choice that will be acclaimed by all as not only fair but one of which all Lima and Ohio can be proud.

Because of this fact all the pictures were examined again Friday night and Saturday morning several of the entrants were interviewed by the judges. Competition

PASADENA, Calif.—(By Associated Press)—Mrs. Clifton Hunn, wife of a wealthy Chicago business man, was killed last night by an ex-convict who once befriended, who, police said, smashed her head with a hammer, shot her thru the heart and looted her apartment of goods valued at $20,000.

Police today were seeking as Mrs. Hunn's slayer, Harry Conner, alias Harry Garbutt, who, according to detectives, was released from an Illinois prison thru her influence, after serving part of a sentence for robbery and who was aided with her money to start life anew after leaving his cell.

WITNESSED BY GIRL
F. B. Gibson, a cousin of the slain woman, was in the apartment when Conner called late yesterday and after being invited to stay for dinner, he told police, the ex-convict locked him in the bath room and then turned on his hostess and killed her.

Gibson said he escaped from the bath room and reached the police station.

Lee Davis, 35, colored, of Cincinnati, hovers near death at St. Rita's hospital, and Philip Wang, of New York City, lies seriously injured at city hospital, both victims of automobile accidents Friday near Lima. Slippery pavements caused both machines to skid, plunge from the roads and overturn.

Davis was driving a Packard limousine on the Dixie highway near Wapakoneta, on his way to Cincinnati, about 1:30 p. m. About two miles east of Wapakoneta, a s. automobile skidded, failed to take the "figure eight" curve which approaches the Auglaize river at that place, turned turtle and rolled down a steep incline and into a hay-field, 20 feet below the level of the roadway.

A passing motorist, who witnessed the accident, hurried to the scene found the driver of the wrecked machine lying seriously injured amid the wreckage, and phoned Wapakoneta for an ambulance.

The stricken man, who was delirious when the ambulance arrived, fought the driver when he attempted to remove him from the wreckage. With the aid of police Officer Bernard Roney, who was sent from Lima police headquarters to investigate the accident, Davis was gotten into the machine.

ROBINS IN DANGER OF RETREAT AS PIRATES ADVANCE

It's Bobby Jones Or Chick Evans Who Is Picked To Win American Amateur Tourney

GET SLAPPED HARD AS GIANTS SUBDUED CUBS

BY HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK—Pushed from the front and dragged from behind the hard-pressed Brooklyn Robins are now in danger of being removed almost bodily from the National league pennant race.

The Giants slapped the Robins in the face yesterday by

TIGERS TO FINISH THIRD

BY TY COBB
(Manager of the Detroit Tigers)

DETROIT—(By United Press)—I'll not make one guess as to what I'll bet that guess right. The Detroit Tigers will finish third in the American League race. I never said we would win the flag but I had hoped that we would go over. I had intended to devote more of my time to the managing end next year and with a good young ball club I figured I would not have to play as much.

Injuries to players as we entered the stretch certainly hurt our chances for the pennant this year. Right at the most critical part of the season we lost Lu Blue and I don't have to tell anyone who follows baseball and knows Blue's game what a loss it was. I have no complaint about that because I have been in baseball long enough to know that a manager and a club must accept the bad breaks with the good ones.

Some of my young pitchers didn't come thru as I had hoped they might. While we may be disappointed by failing to win the championship this year we know that the season has not been wasted. The team is all young. The seasoning the youngsters get in such a hard fight undoubtedly will help us for the going next year. I'm going to play again next year and try for another 200 hits if necessary to bring the flag to Detroit. I believe the next two days will prove the decisive test for the Yanks and the Senators. I believe my club can lick either one of them in a series. I don't believe the Yanks will take the series from us but I never predict. We'll go thru the series fighting and that's all I can say.

Both Huggins and Harris have my best wishes.
(Copyright, 1924)

beating the Cubs and the Pittsburgh Pirates tackled them from behind by winning the first game of the most important series across the bridge.

The Robins emerged from their lead day a game and a half behind the leading Giants and only a game ahead of the trailing Pirates.

Brooklyn is faced with the necessity of winning today's game or dropping the series as they have only three games with the Pirates. Dazzy Vance, the leading pitcher of the major league who has won 15 games in a row, may be sent out to grab today's game for the Robins. It is "Grimes" turn to pitch but his arm was sore yesterday from the effects of a blow on the elbow in yesterday's game and he may not be ready to go.

The Pirates may take a gamble and use a young pitcher or they might use Johnny Morrison to come out after a day's rest and try to win the game that will clinch the series.

GIANTS GAIN FULL GAME
The American league situation has now reached the sensational point. The astounding Washington Senators dropped the Browns yesterday while the Detroit Tigers took a full out of the Yanks and the Senators again cannot one full game on the championship.

One game is not an imposing feat but in the case of the Senators and the Yanks it is of most vital importance. The Senators and the Yanks have nine more games each to play. Washington must lose two more games than the Yanks to be nosed out of the race.

The schedule seems to favor the Senators who close with the Boston Red Sox while the Yanks have to finish the season against the Athletics. The Athletics, of course, are not of high social rating but they have shown indication in the past to play baseball when pennant contenders would prefer them to follow their usual way.

As the team now stands, Washington can win only four of the remaining games and force the Yanks to win five out of nine to tie them and six out of nine to beat them.

NEW YORK—(By Associated Press)—To accomplish the untold feat of winning four consecutive major league pennants the Giants need only to win one of their remaining games. If they win even if either Brooklyn or Pittsburgh should win all of their remaining games.

If the Giants win only six, the Browns could win the pennant by winning one half game by beating the Yanks on their scheduled day.

The Robins by capturing the Yanks left to play, would have won the pennant.

One of the schedule which has made the three contending clubs into competitors in the pennant race favors the Giants. If the Pirates and Robins each win their two games to be played today and tomorrow, the Senators could lose two of their three games to McKelvie's team and come home by capturing one of the eight remaining games on the schedule today.

After Pittsburgh or Brooklyn wins a double killing of the Robins, the losing team will be eliminated.

GIANTS SHOW STRONGEST
The Senators are not yet in a commanding margin. If Washington loses one game the Yanks will be for the lead by taking the winning contests. Each team is playing today.

Evans of yesterday, however, showed a tendency on the part of the world champions to crack the Washington salad glorious when St. Louis under a 15 to 10 score. Sad Sam Jones, with a 10 to 10 in the eighth, was set down by forceful Tiger pinch hitters and driven from the box. The score was tied. In the ninth the Dugan threw wild and lost, after passing two men out, but he finished Hane's single theatrical order.

Pros, 'Ams And Sich

Maybe the time will come when experts will forget about Johnson and start calling rookie pitchers "a second Dazzy Vance."

Kid McCoy is going to write a novel about himself. This is convincing proof that the man hasn't a heart.

Carping critics complain Pad-dock has too many theories. Opponents complain he has too many feet.

Ducks have begun to go south but long-billed geese, that infest six-day bike races and wrestling matches, continue to hang around Broadway.

We shall never be satisfied that all the bugs are in asylums until baseball fans quit standing in line all night for world series seats.

If the current Chinese disturbance succeeds in establishing identity of the guy who inflicted mah jongg on the world the war will not have been fought in vain.

Newspaper boys are getting more original. None of the "round-the-world flyers" was quoted as asking, "How many homers did Ruth get while we were gone?"

One artist who always manages to end his season in a blaze of glory is the fire-eater in the circus.

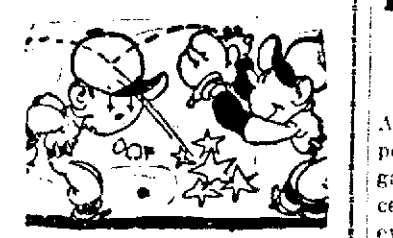

The putting touch is important in golf. And knowing when to put the touch on is very important in panhandling.

Price of Wales came out of polo skirmish with black eye. Everybody seems to be trying to give royalty a black eye these days.

Paavo Nurmi refused $2,500 to run a race in this country. Evidently the Finnish amateur comes much higher than the American product.

The golfer who would have made a hole in one if the flag had been removed now gives way to the bowler who would have had a perfect score if the nine-pin had toppled.

TOMMY THE TORCH

TOMMY HITCHCOCK

"He'll try anything once." That's what they say of Tommy Hitchcock, youngest and most daring of America's polo stars. Tommy started playing polo at the age of 10. Six years later he was a champion. At 17 he was an aviator in the World War. He fell behind the German lines, was made prisoner and escaped by swimming the Rhine. At 18 he was a major. Now at 25 he is the most colorful figure in the polo world. "Tommy the Torch" they call him, a flaming figure in every skirmish.

FOOTBALL PROVED MOST POPULAR OLYMPIC SPORT

PARIS—(By United Press)—Association football was the most popular sport of the 1924 Olympic games, as indicated by the receipts. The track and field events only netted 1,549,429 francs while football pulled up 1,789,761.

Swimming surprisingly ranked third in popularity, bringing in 1,164,110, beating rugby football, fourth, and tennis, fifth, by close margins. Polo came next with boxing, which was figured as one of the chief attractions, a miserable seventh, netting only 115,254 francs. Equestrian sports, rowing, cycling all came under the 100,000 mark, while such dismal events as weight lifting, shooting, fencing and wrestling are not listed at all in the Olympic Committee's report of proceeds.

A STRONG ARGUMENT
These figures strike, however, as a strong argument for fewer events on Olympic programs and a more concentrated program. Boxing and tennis, both of which could well have been held in the stadium during the track and field games, and which should have been popular with French crowds, failed to pay expenses because they were chiefly held at night in remote halls. They would have yielded the receipts had they been held in the stadium and tempted the stadium of such events as the 10,000 metre walk, the shot put, the high jump, polo, vault and middle-distance races. The pentathlon was finished in total darkness before finished practice empty while, in another arena, fencing was going on in front of less than a score of spectators. The French people seemed to make too much of a game and the committee's zeal proved a boomerang.

MOST PAINFUL BLOW
The most painful blow of all was the swimming. To stage these events properly the Olympic committee constructed a beautiful building with a 50-metre raised tank at an expense of 10,000,000 francs, so that the proceeds of the swimming events were less than one-twentieth of the outlay. This building is now called a white elephant. It is situated to the north of Paris, a long way from the centre of the city and in a poor district.

The stadium at Colombes, can well be used for football events and track meets but now that the Olympic games are over, critics are condemning more strongly than ever the choice of a site so far from the center of the city.

MUST ELIMINATE
Post-Olympic statistics give much food for reflection. It is clear that such events as rowing, cycling, polo, winter and equestrian sports, fencing, wrestling and, above all, shooting, should have had no place on the program.

The total receipts of the games are 2,456,519 francs. The Olympic committee will be reimbursed by insurance companies, with whom contracts were made prior to the opening of the games, of one-half of the difference between the total receipts and a sum fixed at between eight and nine million francs. Still there will be a considerable loss.

WATCHING THE SCORE BOARD
Yakovlev, a Russian, was the only one to win a medal in the shooting events. He won the gold medal in the 500 metre event and the silver in the 1000 metre event. He also won the silver in the 200 metre event and the bronze in the 500 metre event.

While the judges were busy with the shooting of the 500 metre event, the French won from the 1000 metre event. The French won the 1000 metre event by a score of 10 to 9. The French won the 1000 metre event by a score of 10 to 9.

The French won the 1000 metre event by a score of 10 to 9. The French won the 1000 metre event by a score of 10 to 9. The French won the 1000 metre event by a score of 10 to 9.

TREMENDOUS FIELD STARTS GOLF CLASSIC

MARION CRICKET CLUB, PHILADELPHIA—(United Press)—Bobby Jones, Atlanta, former national open champion, and Chick Evans, Chicago, former national amateur champion, were picked today as the two entries likely to upset the long run of eastern domination in American amateur golf.

As the qualifying rounds in the annual national amateur championship started Jones and Evans seemed the most formidable entries from the old guard and George Von Elm and Dexter Cummings the most promising of the newcomers.

Evans, Chicago, former national open champion, and Bobby Jones, Atlanta, former national open champion, were picked today as the two entries likely to upset the long run of eastern domination in American amateur golf.

The field that starts today in the qualifying rounds includes 106 players from England, Canada and the United States. The most formidable British candidate is Fred Tolly who beat Marion last week at Garden City. Frank Thompson, dominant champion, heads the four entries from Canada.

The field is so large that it necessitates two days of qualifying rounds. All of the entries have to play 18 holes today and 18 Monday. The 32 players returning the lowest model scores will remain in the tournament.

The field will play another round of four or less, the field totals 160, the largest number that ever sought the title, and the tournament has been given an international aspect by the entry of ten members of the British Walker cup team, in addition to various other British subjects and the champions of Panama and Canada.

STOCKS AGAIN ON UPGRADE

Advance Is Led By Western and Southwestern Rails

MARKET IS FIRM AT CLOSE

Gains Of One To Three Points Are Scored

NEW YORK—(By Associated Press)—Stock prices resumed their movement to higher ground today. Western and Southwestern railroad shares, which were buoyed up by expectation of higher earnings as a result of the unusually heavy grain movement to the west, led the advance, with the food and tobacco groups also giving good exhibition of group strength.

Standard Plate Glass, the only remaining weak spot, extended its loss to nearly five points.

Northwestern advanced three points while the American Tobacco issues, California Packing, and Northwestern, Austin preferred, Texas Gulf, and U. S. East Iron Pipe all two or more points above their final prices.

The closing was firm. The closing was firm. The closing was firm.
